

obsessed with becoming Lenore, the perfect wife of The Raven and The Man, trying to kill you to rid her competition admits she kills Ligeia, potentially gets possessed by Ligeia after her death

Lady Ligeia could help you in the end if you beat her she is shorter, and has more round features, white skin similar to Ligeia, but with blonde hair that is done into curls that have been meticulously done

she wears a long black dress to contrast Ligeia

There is an overbust corset to try to entice The Raven and The Man to no avail, her eyes are completely white, and an angry look on her face upon seeing Annabel Lee. I imagine in a vain attempt to hide herself and semi emulate Ligeia she wears something like this

For fighting she is enraged and obsessive, so she is kind of limp and hunched over like this:

. For a weapon, her hands are massive and have sharp claws. She swipes at the player several times per round. Her idle involves breathing heavily.

She might laugh to give herself more power for an attack
